

The Circle Of Gold (The Book Of Time III)

By Guillaume Prevost

The astounding conclusion to Guillaume Prevost's fast-moving, mind-bending time travel trilogy.

Sam rescued his father from Dracula's castle, but that doesn't mean their troubles are over. Now Allan Faulkner lies in a coma in the Sainte-Mary hospital, tossing about and muttering aloud about saving Sam's late mother. Sam has no choice but to go back in Time to see her. His inability to control his destination, however, means he journeys to ancient China, Renaissance Rome, and even 2025 -- where he sees his own grave! Can Sam prevent this grisly ending and save his mother once and for all?

After a helpful four-page synopsis of preceding events, the concluding volume in the Book of Time trilogy opens with Sam sitting by his comatose father's hospital bed and determining that there's only one way to bring him around: travel three years back in time and prevent the accident that killed his wife, Sam's mother. Events unfold swiftly as Sam gathers the magical objects he needs to undertake this most dangerous form of time travel. Family ties and a love interest grow stronger here, but nothing slows the headlong rush into action that makes this engaging adventure story such a page-turner. Grades 5-8. --Carolyn Phelan
